ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) was formed in our college on National Voters' Day, 25th January 2020 with an objective to educate and ensure participation of students in electoral processes, voter registration and to create awareness about the significance of voting in elections.

Orientation programmes are conducted to spread awareness among students about the electoral processes. Online surveys are conducted for the enrolment of new voters so that the process to procure voters id can be initiated. Voter's oath taking ceremony is also being conducted for the students. In association with the Election Commission of India, Voters awareness session is conducted to create awareness among our students about the significance of enrolling as a voter and exercising their right to vote. Various competitions are also organized on the occasion of National Voters' Day and winners are felicitated.
